This is the common hackberry in that of Okla. (except panhandle), Planted for panhandle: I seed in Okla. We spread in e. half of U.S., except of Okla. except in interior. Zones 2.

Wood yellowish or greenish gray with thick yellow sapwood. Fine porous, coarseand scaly.

Dark brown, dry and sweet, with I seed.

Lime (lime) long-shielded at base, round, ¾ in. (6-9) mm in diameter, mostly smooth.

 Hacker: Several smooth on twisted with leaves in early spring, pithy, and narrow.

Hairy on veins, shining yellow in autumn

In the or dark, shiny green and smooth or sometimes rough above, bunched pater and other mostly yellow. Shiny toothed or rounded. Mostly smooth, except for small, smooth base with 3 main veins.

Leaves in 2 rows, oval to 4½ in. (10-12) cm (long), 1½ in. (3-5) cm (wide). Long-petiole.

Medium sized to large tree 60 ft (18 m) high and 2 ft (0.6 m) in diameter, with

61. HACKBERRY

Celtis occidentalis

"northern hackberry"