Statewide Discussion:

Very wet conditions over the Thanksgiving holiday weekend with major icing and heavy rains will put the damper on fire activity for the next few days. No significant fire activity anticipated today. Given fuel moisture observations and the current forecast, we will issue the next update to the Oklahoma Wildfire Situation report later in the week as things begin to dry out.

Special Note to Firefighters:

Soggy conditions will be present for a while in many areas of Oklahoma. As we dry out and fires do begin to occur be cautious of accessing fires off-road given the potential of becoming hung-up. Scout the fireline to determine best access and tactics prior to committing engines and equipment – especially wheeled vehicles.

Remember... ONLY YOU can prevent wildfires! Enjoy Oklahoma's wildlands responsibly.
Report any suspicious wildland fire activity on the
